persons or children, from two wheels, one of which will contain gifts on printed slips sealed in envelopes of the same size, the other will contain tags, the person choosing corresponding with all the tickets sold; after the contents of both wheels are thoroughly mixed and revolved, the person at the first wheel will take a number therefrom, and then the person at the second wheel will take a gift therefrom, and the gift taken will belong to the number taken immediately before it,—this process will continue until the numbers and gifts are publicly announced,—until the whole four hundred and one gifts are distributed.
Thus the public will see that there can be no fraud, collusion, or knowledge of what gift any number will get.
Should the tickets be not all sold, when the concert comes off, the presents will be distributed in proportion to the number sold.It is hoped the public will promptly respond to this effort to establish upon a firm and A. M., of this city, will celebrate the festival of St. John the Baptist, which occurs on the 27th inst., by a supper and banquet, and at a meeting last evening a committee was appointed to confer with Hiram Lodge and invite their co-operation. The banquet will undoubtedly be a grand success. If we are not with our own lodge (Johnson Cassel, No. 10, Warrenton), on this occasion, we will accept with much pleasure, the invitation.RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY.—The following resolutions were passed by Raleigh Typographical Union, at its last regular meeting:WHEREAS, It hath seemed good to the Almighty Disposer of events to remove from the walks of life the late HORACE GREELEY; and whereas, the intimate relations long held by the deceased with the printing fraternity render it proper that we should express our appreciation of his services to the country and his merits as a man; therefore,Resolved, That we deplore the loss of HORACE GREELEY with deep feelings of regret, softened only by the hope that his spirit is with those who, having fought the good fight here, are enjoying perfect happiness in a better world.Resolved, That in his death the newspaper press of the United States loses one of its ablest conductors, the nation a ripe statesman, the world a good man, and the poor and oppressed of mankind a warm friend. His life was an eventful one, illustrative of the fact that success ever follows persevering labor, honesty and integrity. In connection with his calling, he was a faithful apprentice, competent journeyman, accomplished editor and liberal proprietor.Resolved, That the relatives of the deceased have our profoundest sympathies in this their sad affliction.

spondent, under Monday's date, gives us the following items:The exercises in declamation and compositions at Messrs. Horner & Graves' Classical and Mathematical the most interesting character. The served among the spectators. The Rev.

D. E. Jordan, the very efficient and popular pastor of the Presbyterian Church, delivered a chaste and pertinent address on the subject of the Sabbath.Mr. Jonathan Osborn, who not long since sustained the fracture of one of his thighs by falling from the top of a RELATIVE INCIDENTS.—

The two Houses were in joint session yesterday, considering the resolutions of the August election. It appearing that the official returns of Mason and Watanga had not been received as yet, the joint session adjourned until the 13th inst. in order that the summary be obtained. The Clerk read the following as the returns exclusive of these counties:For Governor—Caldwell 98,009; Mercator 95,579.Lieutenant Governor—Brogden 96, 957; Hughes 94,844.Secretary of State—Howerton 96,073; son and Watanga will reduce Gov.

Caldwell's majority to some 3,000.In the Senate Mr. Murray introduced a bill to establish a new county by the name of Gilliam. This bill proposes to establish a county out of portions of Granville and Warren. The bill was referred.The resolution to sell the perishable property in the State arsenal created some amusing discussion in the Senate yesterday. Mr. Murphy thought it best to turn the said blankets and clothing over to some charitable institution for the benefit of the poor this winter. This property is the relic of the Kirk Bergen war.GILLIAM COUNTY.—Our Henderson correspondent in yesterday's issue says the people living in the section in which the proposed county is to be established are enthusiastically in favor of it.A private letter received yesterday from an old and valued friend living in England, who is now in the Western county, and an influential citizen, says: "We are opposed to the movement. As a Western county man, I am not to be taken from our old county, and we know in this we reflect its citizens.
Make your new county elsewhere if it is for the public good, but if this case we pitiously ask—"woodman spare that tree."MISS PATTERSON Miss Patterson's audience last night, though not so large as the night before, was equally charmed and delighted by her elegant recitations.
Her second visit to Raleigh has largely increased the circle of her admirers, and attached more warmly those who on her first appearance; indeed, where ever her purity, her modesty, her genuine merit and all the womanly graces and charms are honored and appreciated, there will Miss Patterson find a genuine and heartfelt welcome.In our notice of her first reading, we neglected to state she was introduced by Major Gales in his most felicitous manner.CLASSICAL AND MATHEMATICAL

THE NORTH CAROLINA LEGIS-LATURE.

TWENTIETH DAY.

TUESDAY, Dec. 10, 1872.

Senate met at 11 o'clock, President Morehead in the Chair.Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Report of Committee.

Messrs. Murray, Todd, Dunham, Flemming, Welch and Grandy made reports from various standing committees.

Message from the House informing the Senate of the passage of several bills.Senate concurred in House amendment to memorial of H. I.House bill for the better protection of oysters and terrapins in the waters of North Carolina, referred to the "Committee on Agriculture."Senate concurred in House resolution concerning the fees and salaries of the Deaf and Dumb and the Insane Asylums.

Introduction of Bills and Resolutions

Mr. Seymour, a bill to amend chapter 183 of laws of 1871-72. Referred.Mr. Grandy, a bill to repeal chapter 179 of the public laws of 1870-71, and to enact chapter 90 of the laws of 1869-70, requiring a suit to be instituted against the Albernethy and Chesapeake Canal Company. Referred.Mr. Murray, a bill to establish a new county by the name of Gilliam. Referred.Mr. Cowles, a bill empowering the special committee on the Western N. C.
Railroad to take testimony under oath.Mr. Seymour moved to add, "in the same manner and with like power over-such witnesses as is now in use in the Supreme Court." Amendment adopted.

THE STATE DEBT.

Numerous plans and propositions are being made through the public press in relation to the public debt of North Carolina. How the debt shall be compromised or satisfactorily adjusted is a complicated question and one that demands serious study and consideration. We deem it our duty to the public to give such practical suggestions on the subject as may occur to us, as well as the views of others who undertake to solve the difficult and intricate problem.

With a view of thoroughly understanding any plans that may be submitted and considering the merits of any proposition of adjustment, it will be well to examine the present indebtedness of the State and see how the account stands with our creditors.

The bonds issued before the war, amount to $1,000,000. On these is now due, as interest, $100,000. The bonds issued during the war under Acts passed before the war, amount to $1,000,000. On these is now due, as interest, $100,000. The bonds issued since the war under Acts passed since the war, amount to $1,000,000. On these is now due, as interest, $100,000. The bonds issued under authority of the Legislature, amount to $1,000,000. On these is now due, as interest, $100,000.

THE MEMORIAL FESTIVAL.

We trust that the Memorial Festival which is to be held in this city at Tucker Hall, on this and Thursday evenings, will be liberally patronized.

The object of the Fair is to raise funds for the purpose of paying off the indebtedness incurred by the Ladies Memorial Association, in improving and beautifying the Confederate Cemetery at Raleigh.

At the Fair last Spring, the ladies received much encouragement and realized a handsome sum as the result of their patriotic and self-sacrificing efforts. Surely, a cause which appeals directly to those who feel any sympathy and pride in the memories of the brave heroes, who gave immortality to their country by an exhibition of the noblest traits and highest virtues that win the applause and reverence of mankind—a cause which has been sanctified by the active agency and matchless devotion of our fair countrywomen—a cause which deserves to be enshrined in the tablet of every Southern heart, and commemorated by annual floral offerings, scattered above the sleeping dust of those who perished in a vain attempt to save our liberties—surely, such a cause needs no the cold, dull speech of argument to urge its claims upon this community, or upon those who may be sojourning in our city.

AN IMPORTANT MEASURE.

On Monday, an important bill was introduced by Mr. Flemming in the Senate, to regulate and control the transportation of freights upon railroads.

We have not read the bill and therefore cannot speak of its merits. But the subject is one which deeply concerns the people of the State. If we understand the object of Mr. Flemming's bill, as indicated in its title, it is to prevent the discrimination of our railroads in favor of through freights over local freights. This matter is now engaging the attention of other States, and its importance demands some speedy and practical attention at the hands of our General Assembly.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.
NOON DISPATCHES.

The Louisiana Muddle.
NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 10.—Pinchback proclaims his assumption of the Governorship, and asks the support of all good citizens.

The Custom House Legislature passed a resolution impeaching Warmouth. Vote, 58 to 6. A committee was appointed to inform the Senate.

Pinchback qualified and took possession of the Governor's office. Warmouth is suspended pending the impeachment proceedings.

Pinchback exculpates C. A. Weed from participation in the attempt to bribe him. Pinchback says: "I owe it to myself and Mr. Weed to state that he was not present at the meeting as I am entirely different room, and the doors were closed between us. He came to the house with Mr. Warmouth, but was not present."

The Commercial Convention.
ST. LOUIS, Dec. 10.—The local committee have about completed arrangements for the Commercial Convention, which meets here Wednesday. Among the principal subjects to be discussed are railroads, interior lines of water communication, public lands, immigration, domestic and foreign commerce, finance and taxation, American ship building, and navigation interests and mineral and mining interests.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—A contest is progressing before Surrogate over Mr. Greeley's will. The last will was witnessed a few hours before his death, when witnesses testified Mr. Greeley was conscious and rational. The former will gives bequests to Mr. Greeley's relatives and a share of the "Friburn" stock to the children's Aid Society.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Unveiling of the Statue of the Late Judge Roger B. Taney.

ANNAPOLIS, MD., Dec. 10.—The ceremonies attending the unveiling of the statue of the late Roger B. Taney, Chief Justice of the United States, erected by his native State, Maryland, took place at the State Capitol, in the Senate chamber to-day. Teakie Wallace, Chairman of the Committee appointed by the Legislature to carry into effect the provisions of the act providing for the erection of this testimonial to the State for her eminent and well-beloved son, delivered a brief but eloquent eulogy on the life of the deceased statesman and jurist, transferring the custody and future safe-keeping of the statue to the Governor, as the representative of the people of the State. The address of Mr. Wallace was appropriately and feelingly responded to by Gov. White, after which the large assembly proceeded to the front of the State House, where the statue was unveiled. During the ceremonies in the Capitol, the Senate chamber, the gallery of the large hall and ante chamber were literally packed with distinguished visitors present to witness the ceremonies, and honor the memory of Chief Justice Taney.

Among them were Chief Justice Barlow and the Judges of the Court of Appeals of the State, Judge Giles of the United States Circuit Court, the Judges of the District Court, the Admirals, Wardens, Captain Carter and other officers attached to the Naval Academy, in uniform, the Mayor of Baltimore and distinguished members of the bar of Maryland and Washington City, clergymen and Catholic priests from Washington and elsewhere and many ladies. The statue was executed by Sculptor Reinhardt, and was cast in Munich at the Royal foundry. It is in bronze of heroic size, representing the Chief Justice in robes of office, presiding in the Supreme Court of the United States, in every respect the statue is natural and life like. Its locality is the east front of the State House, a short distance from the main entrance.

The Louisiana Difficulty.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 10.—Warmouth petitioned to the Eighth District Court, against Pinchback's assuming the Governorship. The petition was to declare Pinchback a usurper, and a wrong doer, and to have the Court issue an injunction as was prayed for by Warmouth. A citizens meeting to protest against the alleged invasion of rights was very large, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. Gov. Warmouth and McEnery spoke. Warmouth suggests an appeal to Congress. Memorial was adopted by the Chamber of Commerce against the usurpation of the State Government by unscrupulous adventurers, supported by the Federal bayonets. A committee of one hundred was appointed to prepare memorial to the President and Congress. The memorial to the President and Congress was adopted, and the committee appointed who shall visit Washington, and ask that the Federal soldiers be removed from the Capital in order that duly elected officers may have access. The Kellogg Legislature have elected new Attorney General who telegraphed to Washington to stop proceedings before the Supreme Court, being instituted by Attorney General Ogden. Pinchback in his message recommends a prompt action.

Washington Affairs.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The Secretary of the Treasury sent a communication to the House of Representatives to-day, recommending an amendment to act to regulate and secure safe-keeping of public money entrusted to disbursing officers of the United States, passed in 1866. The Secretary encloses the draft of a bill so as to include every clerk or agent, with every disbursing officer in the provision, making it a penal offence to convert to his own use or to lend, with or without interest, the public moneys, and also making any banker or broker or other person, who shall knowingly receive loans of public moneys from disbursing officers, liable to be tried for embezzlement.

In the case of the United States against Harlow, the penal or latter clause of the third section of act 1866 has been held by the Supreme Court of the United States to be limited in its effect to the officers named in the act, and cannot be construed to apply to any others; hence the recommendation of the Secretary to include every clerk, agent or other person.

In the case of Kellogg against Warmouth, which was before the Supreme Court of the United States on Monday, the Court to-day granted leave to file petition, and ordered that argument on the motion for a rule to show cause against Judge Durell be heard on Thursday.

Secretary Delano has gone to Cuba for his health.

The President has gone to Philadelphia, to a wedding.

One hour's Cabinet meeting to-day. It is stated on the street that the Cabinet decided to support Pinchback as Governor, pro tem., of Louisiana.

No nominations or confirmations to-day, affecting the South.
